Custodian of Records

Date

TIMEFRAME FOR A RESPONSE TO A REQUEST

The custodian of Records is required to grant or deny access to government record no later than seven (7) business days after receiving the request. If you do not provide a name, address, telephone number or other means of contacting you, the Custodian of Records will be unable to respond to the original request.

If the government record is in storage or archived, you will be so advised within seven (7) business days after the Custodian of Records receives your request. You will be advised by the Custodian of Records when the record can be made available. If the record is not made available by that time, access will be considered denied.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

If you wish to challenge a decision of the Custodian of Records denying access to a government record you may:

1. Institute a proceeding to challenge that decision by filing an action in Superior Court in New Jersey; or
2. File a complaint with the Government Records Council in the Department of Community Affairs.
